Dear Parents/Carers,

Thursday 8th of May marks the 80th anniversary of VE day and across the trust we would like to mark the occasion. At Walpole, the children can come to school dressed in red, white and blue - as much or as little as they want and we will be carrying out an art activity linked to the occasion - we'll also try to show this on the playground at the end of the day so you can see what we've been up to.

In the afternoon, we will also be hosting the St Clement's cluster tri golf festival. Children from Year 1 to Year 4 will be able to take part and some children from Year 5 and Year 6 may be asked to help run the stations too. Children can take part in their red, white and blue clothes (golf won't be too demanding) and we will be finished in time for a normal pick up.

Any questions, please contact Mr Overton.

Many thanks

Mr Overton
